

Prior 401(k) Contributions Notification Form for 2024

Through automatic payroll deductions, you can contribute between 1% and 50% of your eligible pay to the Seagate 401(k) Plan on a pretax and/or Roth 401(k) basis, up to the annual IRS limit ($23,000 in 2024).

The IRS will only allow you to contribute $23,000 of pretax and/or Roth 401(k) personal contributions for the current calendar year (2024). The $23,000 cap on pretax/Roth 401(k) personal contributions for 2024 includes all sources for the year, not just contributions you make while at Seagate. So, if you have contributed to a previous employer's 401(k) or 403(b) plan during 2024, those contributions added to your Seagate contributions cannot exceed $23,000. Any excess contribution amounts will be considered as income.

In addition, if you are age 50 or older, or if you will reach age 50 by the end of the calendar year (December 31, 2024), you can make an additional $7,500 in pretax and/or Roth 401(k) "catch-up" contributions to your Seagate 401(k) Plan. This means that in 2024 you will be able to save a total of $30,500 on a pretax and/or Roth 401(k) basis, a $7,500 increase over the standard $23,000 pretax and/or Roth 401(k) personal contribution limit.

By notifying Seagate Payroll of your contributions with your previous employer(s), Seagate Payroll will only deduct the difference so you will not exceed the IRS limit for calendar year 2024.

- If you are under age 50, your pretax and/or Roth 401(k) personal contribution limit is $23,000 for 2024.
- If you are age 50 or older, or if you will reach age 50 by December 31, 2024 your pretax and/or Roth 401(k) contribution limit, with catch-up contribution, is $30,500 for 2024.

Note: Notifying Payroll of your 401(k) contributions to other plans during 2024 is your responsibility. If you do not notify Seagate of year-to-date contributions you have made to other plans, and your total contributions to all plans exceed the IRS limits for calendar year 2024, the Seagate 401(k) Plan is not required to distribute any excess amount to you.
